

Creating space for listening:

- God listens to us.
- God wants us to listen to Him.
- Hospitality

Ways I can improve my listening:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.

Practice, practice, practice...!

Weep with those who weep, and rejoice with those who rejoice.

Romans 12:15

reaching the neglected • the least, the last, and the lost

Debriefing is:

- A safe (confidential!) space for someone to practice telling his/her story and reflect on their experiences.
- An opportunity to help normalize feelings.
- A way to help identify issues of concern, loss, even sin.

Debriefing is a time and space for someone to sort what he has collected in his “bucket”.

What kinds of things might have been “collected”?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.
- 6.

Debriefing is NOT:

- Counseling
- Bible study
- Spiritual Direction, Guided Prayer...

Active listening:

- Be attentive. (Put away phone, watch...)
- Good eye contact
- Track with someone by nodding and saying “Yes, I understand.”
- Use appropriate facial expressions and body language (smile, look of surprise...)
- Repeat a portion of what the debriefee has just said, “You have lived in Nigeria for 12 years?”
- Ask for clarification, for more information or for something to be repeated: “Who was with you at that time?” “How old did you say you were then?”
- 80/20 rule
